

Covenant of Mayors webinar

11 September 2015, 11.00-12.30

“New transport technologies: How can cities move in energy efficient ways?”

The Covenant of Mayors Office is hosting a webinar dedicated to Signatories and Coordinators with the objective of presenting fuel cell and hydrogen technologies which as one of the pillars of future European energy and transport systems, contributing to changing to a low carbon economy by 2050.

This webinar will allow participants to learn about the fuel cell and hydrogen technologies, with the FCH JU (Fuel Cell and Hydrogen Joint Undertaking) and benefit from the insight of some pioneering cities which are already achieving energy savings through the use of new generation buses in their fleet.

Preliminary agenda:

11.00–11.15	Introduction on the Covenant of Mayors initiative	By Melanie Leroy, EUROCITIES, Covenant of Mayors Office
11.15-11.35	European Support for Hydrogen Fuel Cell Buses	By Carlos Navas, Project Manager, Transport, Fuel Cells and Hydrogen Joint Undertaking
11.35-11.45	Q&A
11.45-12.00	City of Hamburg: Hamburg–Where Innovations become Applications	By Heinrich Klinkenberg, Managing Director hySOLUTIONS GmbH, representative of city of Hamburg
12.00-12.15	City of London: Delivering an Environmentally-Friendly Bus Service	By Mike Weston, Director of Buses, Transport for London
12.15-12.30	Q&A
12.30-12.35	Wrap-up and conclusions

The webinar will be held in English and participation is limited to 100 participants.

Organiser:

Covenant of Mayors Office – Melanie Leroy

Contact details: melanie.leroy@eumayors.eu